DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION SMALL GRANT PROGRAM
APPLICATION PACKAGE

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

2021-2022 SMALL GRANT PROGRAM GUIDELINES

Purpose

The program is meant to support and encourage not-for-profit groups with funding to develop and offer programs or services, create infrastructure, host events, or offer educational training that has a diversity and inclusion focus. The focus can be targeted at specific individuals and groups or be focused on opportunities in general.

Specific Program Criteria

Funding from eligible not-for-profit organizations will be considered under the following criteria:

- Applicants must be Queens County based and projects must take place within Queens County.
- Applicants outside of Queens County with projects taking place in Queens County that promote diversity and inclusion in Queens County may be considered.
- Grants will be awarded in increments of $250, up to an including a maximum amount of $1,000 per application. Applications can contain more than one project idea if the ideas are complementary and targeted at the same people or groups.
- Funding from this program does not disqualify applicants from obtaining funding from other sources and “stacking” their funding as long as the funding from other sources is not for the same thing.
- Applicants must provide expected levels of funding from other sources at the time of application, noting those approved or pending.

Eligibility

The following can apply for a Diversity and Inclusion Small Grant:

- Any not-for-profit organization registered with the Nova Scotia Registry of Joint Stocks or an act of Nova Scotia Legislature.
- Any group or individual starting or running diversity and inclusion programming that can be substantiated with an online presence or a member of the Diversity and Inclusion Action Team or Region of Queens staff or Council to act as a guarantor for the existence of the programming.
- School groups with the support and signature of a school administrator (Principal, Vice-Principal, Guidance Counsellor).

Incomplete applications will not be considered. All funding is subject to availability of funds.

Projects must start between April 1, 2022 and March 31, 2023, unless prior permission is granted from the Diversity and Inclusion Action Team.

Eligible Projects and Costs include:

- educational training and workshops to increase awareness and understanding of LGBTQ2S+, BIPOC, and Persons with a Disability communities;
- festivals and events that increase awareness of, and celebrate diversity and inclusion;
- programs aimed at promoting and benefitting marginalized communities;
- infrastructure changes to support and encourage more use of facilities;
- projects that will eliminate barriers to participation for all;
- promotion and marketing costs for the above; and
- material and equipment rental costs to offer the above programs and services.

Ineligible Projects and Costs include:

- projects undertaken by for-profit businesses and provincial or federal governments
- paving / decorative landscaping
- design fees
- administration or accounting fees
- purchase of equipment for projects other than nominal costs
- in-kind work
- cost overruns

Approval Process

Applications are considered the last Monday of each month at the Diversity and Inclusion Action Team meeting. For an application to be considered at a monthly meeting, it must be received a week prior to the meeting (second last Monday of a month).

A maximum of $3000 shall be distributed quarterly. Should a quarterly allotment not be distributed, it shall roll over into the next quarter until the budget is spent.

Costs incurred prior to the deadline are ineligible.

All Applicants should expect a response within thirty (30) days of receipt of a fully completed application. Once an offer of funding is approved by the Team, an applicant will be notified in writing. Full payment will be made shortly after approval.

Promotion of Approved Projects

All promotion and advertising of approved projects by an Applicant must acknowledge the financial contribution of the Diversity and Inclusion Action Team of Region of Queens Municipality in an appropriate and ongoing way.

Required Claim Documentation

All approved applications seeking reimbursement for funding must submit proof of costs incurred along with a corresponding reconciliation with the requisite matching part of the approved application. Once the project is completed, the applicant must submit a report outlining the activities carried out, people impacted, and goals achieved.
